

NASSP-Pearson Foundation Mobile Learning Institute Application

The Mobile Learning Institute is open to NASSP-member principals and assistant principals. There is no charge for the Institute. Participants will be selected based on their history with and interest in integrating technology in instruction.

March 11, 2010
Sheraton Phoenix Downtown
340 North 3rd Street
Phoenix, AZ 85004

I am registered for the 2010 NASSP Convention. I will require an extra night's lodging. (Please make your own accommodations and retain your receipt. The Mobile Learning Institute will reimburse.)

On a separate page, please briefly describe a technology initiative you attempted in your school. If it was successful, what were the main factors that led to its success? If it did not meet your expectations for success, what lessons did you learn from the attempt? *(Please do not exceed two pages.)

...then sign and date below.

I understand that participation in the Mobile Learning Institute requires my attendance at the daylong event, March 11, 2010, in Phoenix, AZ. I understand that neither NASSP nor the Pearson Foundation will assume the costs of my travel, with the exception of one night's lodging if I am registered to attend the 2010 NASSP Convention. I do not have reason to believe that permission for my attendance at this Institute will be withheld by my district office or other authorities.

Signature _____ Date _____

Please forward the completed application to Bob Farrace, NASSP, 1904 Association Drive, Reston, VA 20191; fax 703-476-5432; e-mail farraceb@principals.org.