

The Mobile Learning Institute
Leadership Summit on Mobile Phones

Thursday, March 11, 2010
Sheraton Phoenix Downtown, Phoenix, AZ

Tentative Agenda

- 8:30–9:00 Continental Breakfast
- 9:00–9:10 Welcome by Mark Nieker, The Pearson Foundation
- 9:10–9:30 DIGITAL ACTIVITY
“Warm-up” activity using mobile phones
- 9:30–9:45 VIDEO: “Learning in the Digital Generation”
- 9:45–10:45 Testimonials from the Field I
Schoolwide Integration of Cell Phones
Kipp Rogers, Principal, Passage Middle School, Newport News VA.
- 10:45–11:00 Break
- 11:00–11:30 Testimonials from the Field II
Fully Integrating Mobile Devices into the Curriculum
Matt Cook, Teacher, Trinity Meadows Intermediate School, Keller, TX
- 11:30 - 11:50 Learning in the Mobile Generation
Elliot Soloway (via Skype), Associate Professor, University of Michigan
- 11:50–12:00 DIGITAL ACTIVITY
Poll: What kinds of digital media activities would you like to use at your school or organization? What kinds of digital media activities do you currently have at your school or organization?
- 12:00–1:00 LUNCH
- 1:00–1:10 SHORT VIDEO: The Mobile Guide Summer Camp at the Bronx Zoo
- 1:10 – 1:55 Testimonials from the Field III
The Mobile Learning Institute at the Field Museum
Nancy Chou, Lead Program Designing, The Mobile Learning Institute
- 1:55 – 2:35 Testimonials from the Field IV
Using Cell Phones for First Generation Students.
Judy Pederson, Teacher, Valley High School, Santa Ana California
- 2:35–3:00 DIGITAL ACTIVITY
Using mobile phones, participants are invited to twitter about what they have seen and learned thus far at the Summit.
- 3:00–3:30 Sharing Plans and Observations
Participants gather to offer their own technology plans or ideas and discuss how those might change given what they have seen and learned during the day.